Chairman (HEC) from Consul General (Acting)
Copy to: i) Additional Secretary (AP) ii) Director General (China) iii) Deputy Head of Mission

Subject: Educational Opportunities and Scholarship Programs in China for Pakistani
Students

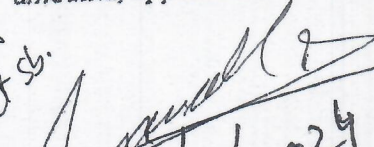

This Mission looks after five provinces in South China and has undertaken a study to explore and share an update on the current universities' scholarship programs available for Pakistani students within the consular jurisdiction. Our jurisdiction covers five provinces: Guangdong, Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region, Hunan, Fujian, and Hainan.

2. In these provinces, there are mainly a total of 76 universities where Pakistani students can apply for higher education. Among them, 11 universities are considered key institutions, recognized and approved by the State Council of China and listed under the Ministry of Education's 985 and 211 Projects. These prominent universities include:

- Guangdong Province: Sun Yat-sen University, South China University of Technology, South China Normal University, and Jinan University.
- Hunan Province: Hunan University, Central South University, and Hunan Normal University.
- Hainan Province: Hainan University.
- Fujian Province: Xiamen University and Fuzhou University.
- Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region: Guangxi University.

3. These institutions offer various scholarship programs to support international students. Currently, the Consulate General has compiled detailed information on scholarship programs available at the four key universities in Guangdong Province only. This includes scholarship programs for undergraduate, post-graduate, and doctoral students, with details on scholarship amounts, application time, and specific application guidelines.
